

Flux International Ltd. – approved by BOI.

Bangkok, Thailand Oct. 2007

Flux converts from Bonded Warehouse – to Board of Investment privileges.

Board of Investment

The growing business has contributed to the decision taken - applying for Board of Investment privileges, which has recently been approved by Thailand BOI.

Warehouse

End of year 2006 - It was foreseen, that it was necessary to have more space for production and in order to establish some new manufacturing facilities for future business.

Flux did rent additional 500 sqm in close connection to our factory.

The new warehouse is now already fully operating and has given a more rational flow and the necessary space for handling and storing the goods.

The transfer of the store - to the new warehouse – was followed by expansion of further manufacturing area in the now available former store area.

New Flux International Ltd. warehouse building – situated in connection to our manufacturing facilities.
