

Flux represented at DECIELEC 2006

Asnaes, Denmark October 2006

POWEREP, Flux French representative displays Flux products at the DECIELEC 2006 exhibition at Tarbes France

Located in the heart of the Midi-Pyrénées Area, central pole of the aeronautics industry in Europe, the DECIELEC convention will attract main contractors as EADS, AIRBUS, THALES, TURBOMECA but also ALSTOM in railway and SIEMENS VDO for car industry.

Organised in pre-programmed and private business meetings, DECIELEC is first of all a tool in the development of firms : research of solutions to accurate issues for contractors, and research of new customers for suppliers.

Flux French representative POWEREP display our product and services at stand no. 94.
