

EMtech represented at HET Instrument 2006

Asnaes, Denmark October 2006

Emtech representative Koning & Hartman displays Emtech new product at the HET Instrument 2006 exhibition, the largest technology event in the Benelux.

The HET Instrument 2006 exhibition runs from October 30th until November 3rd in the Jaarbeurs, Utrecht, The Netherlands.

HET Instrument is the largest technology event in the Benelux. HET is also the only tradeshow in this region that devotes serious effort to a conference programme with the highest quality content.

550 companies await you to bring you up to date and show you the way towards renewal of and greater return from your production, installation, laboratories or research & development.

Our Partner Koning and Hartman will display our latest product. Visit the stand number A052 in Hal 8.
